Root Chakra

Stability, security, the sense of place that I have in this earth and what my purpose in being here is at a primal level. This is my connection to the earth, the nurturing on an elemental and mother level. My grounded place in existence in the material realm. This is survival, shelter, warmth, basic needs. Basic sexual reproduction. This is the foundation for all other chakras, the tap root of nourishment. If this chakra is not vibrant, all others become withered and weak.

This is ancestors, past life and general human life knowledge. This is the sense of security between life and death. It is a flame of primal passion that can move mountains and create at a very deep level. Creating on an elemental level, creating like the earth or the universe creates with bursts of

If we are not settled here we feel like we have no place or direction in life or this earth, possibly like we don't belong or like something is missing.

This chakra holds the initial balance between male and female energy

When this chakra is strong, we feel solid, secure and certain of our self and our place in this world and in our body. This place creates a solid communications for us between the earth, and even all planets and stars in the cosmos. We are home no matter where we are.

OUT OF BALANCE =

Nervousness, unfocused feelings, lowered sense of well being, job worries, financial stress, low back, hip , leg pain , intestinal trouble over stressed adrenal glands, drive one to eat, acquire things, hoard, copulate, stay safe, over protectiveness, Primal and basic needs, childhood trauma, past life material coded, ancestral memories,

Root Chakra Clearing and Declaration

I open now a sacred space for transparency and neutral compassionate witnessing before all of my ancestors, soul family and those serving the law of one mission.

I ask for Earth Mother and Solar Father to open now all of my Earth and Galactic Akashic Records before this spiritual court of equity.

(Breathe the Awakening Breath until you are in a Beta or Theta state of connection with the zero point field. Then drop into your root chakra and with electric mind on the auric field of the chakra, speak all following words from magnetic heart into the field and to all bearing witness)
