

Safe Transit Portal Bardo Chamber of Light

Hello Beautiful Souls,

First, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your participation in this sacred ceremony. Being that guiding voice and providing the vibration of assistance to our loved ones at the time of transition, is one of the most precious gifts we can offer as they navigate through the bardo.

Whether you are physically present with them or connecting from miles away, the act of holding the sacred ceremony remains tremendously powerful. In the moments of transition out of the body, if one is unprepared, there can be a lot of confusion. It may be your voice that they cling to, helping them maintain focus on reconnecting with their Universal Family Tree of Life.

One of the greatest missions of the Indigos and starseeds has been to be the rescue mission for lost souls. The doorway, or the gateway home, occurs at the time of transition. This journey is the soul's most important moment when we finally become free to travel the river of stars to reunite with our true celestial families.

In the afterlife realms, there can be a tremendous amount of deception by various interfering interdimensional or extraterrestrial beings. These entities have been harvesting the energy of humanity and trapping them in cycles of reincarnation on this planet in a very limited capacity. As eternal beings, our consciousness and plasma bodies are pure energy and are highly coveted by some of these negative races. Knowing this is our power. We can command our right to sovereignty, our right to freedom, and our right to return to our true home.

Thank you again for holding this sacred space. Please remember that this safe transit clearing process can be utilized for loved ones, friends, family, acquaintances, or even to assist the loved ones of others. However, one of the most powerful ways to use this process is to help those who are departing their physical forms due to calamities, traumas, and wars on our planet. In times of great confusion, there is an increased likelihood that these souls will become stuck or bound to the earth. By holding this safe transit bardo chamber for them, we are truly stepping up as the rescue mission for all souls to return home.

With immense love and appreciation, thank you for your dedication.

Before Opening Ceremony

Step 1: Create Your 12 D Shield

- Begin by familiarizing yourself with the 12 D Shield technique. If you are not already familiar with this process, take some time to research and understand it here <https://www.withbecca.com/session-resources.html> This will serve as a foundational step in the spiritual process, providing you with protection and grounding.

Step 2: Connect to Your Higher Self

- Connecting to your Higher Self can be achieved with a simple affirmation. Quietly or aloud, state with intention, "Higher Self Now!"

- Allow yourself a moment to feel the connection with your Higher Self. Let yourself imagine, sense or feel the presence of your wiser self present and supporting you through this ceremony.

Step 3: Connect to the Higher Self of the Soul in Transit

- Bring the individual who is the focus of this ceremony into your thoughts.

- With a clear intention, seek to connect to their Higher Self. This can be done by envisioning a light or energy that represents their essence and mentally reaching out to it.

- Trust that the connection to their Higher Self is being established simply through your intention to do so.

Step 4: Dedicate the Sacred Ceremony

- As you maintain the connection and sense of protection, dedicate the ceremony to the highest purpose and good of whom you are doing this ceremony for.

- Speak the following dedication with sincerity and conviction: "I dedicate this sacred ceremony for the highest good and purpose of (NAME), and so it is."

- Visualize the ceremony being enveloped in light, ensuring that your intentions are set for the sovereign soul's ultimate benefit.

Remember to approach each step with reverence and focus, as this is a sacred process intended for spiritual support and guidance.

One last thought to share is, you may wish to have some ceremonial items available such as white candles, incense or a memento or photo of the beloved. You can lay these out in any way that feels very significant or important to you.

Opening Ceremony

Read or Speak (it can be out loud or in your head if out loud is not possible.)

"In this very I AM present moment, I, (YOUR NAME/s) come here to create and hold a safe transit corridor of light for (NAME). Through our soul sovereign divine right as spiritual angelic lights of the One Eternal Source, we have the right to create a safe transit bardo chamber for the divine sovereign being (name), and we evoke that right now as we call upon the spiritual councils to be present with us now to amplify the sacred corridor of safe transit."

Visualize Expanding the 12 D field outward and spinning in a counterclockwise direction. You may imagine it as a corridor of light that goes from Earth into the celestial realms of the Higher Self of whom you are doing this ceremony for. It is a pillar of light, yet has a lifting spiral of movement to it that leads the spirit upward.

Call now to connect to the Aurora Sun and Families of Light from beyond this 15D time Matrix.

"I call upon the guardian councils, Aurora hosts, and divine spiritual teams all in alignment with the Higher Self of (NAME). We call upon the sacred directions of North, South, East, West, Earth, Sky and Heart. We ask of the guardians of these sacred directions please anchor lock and hold guardianship for this sacred space. With a loving heart we ask that the sacred directions be sealed in the light of the Eternal Flame, and so it is."

Create a corridor of safe transit.

"We call now to the Higher Self of (NAME), to fortify an anchor now a corridor of safe transit. Fortify this bardo chamber with the frequencies an alignment to the God seed code and universal family tree of life of (NAME). We command that this bardo chamber be attuned to the vibrations and frequencies of the Higher Self of (NAME) and only that which is in the highest alignment of (NAME's) Higher Self."

Clear any interfering entities or spirits.

"We now ask of the Higher Self of (NAME), to please scan through this safe transit corridor of light and please identify any interfering spirits, entities, or anything that may cause disruption, harm, or manipulation."

Identify all these energies now, surround them in a white light and pull them from this space permanently and irrevocably.

We command that this space be purified and protected for (NAME) now, and so it is!"

Let them know you are calling to their spirit.

"Beloved (NAME), hear my voice. You are safe, you are protected, and you are free. The earth and the living are completely taken care of, and are holding the greatest love and support for you for this sacred graduation and journey of your soul. You did it! It is your time to get to return home, to your true home, to your true family, to your true light.

Command in this sacred space Higher Self now!

Do not be distracted, follow your true light, and let your sacred bardo chamber guide you home.

You are free, you are free, you are free!

With love we hold the sacred space for you, and so it is!

Follow the voice of your light and command your sovereignty now!

'I am sovereign, I am free!'

We will handle the rest."

Call to their spiritual council & clear all bindings

"We call upon the higher council of (NAME), Guardian, Guides, Spiritual Teams, please apply Core Soul Protection now for (NAME).

We call to the Aurora Sun Families of Light. We request the complete removal of all Metatronic cube systems, Nephilim reversal programs, spirit attachments, energetic bindings, blood sacrifice, Jehovian Seals, contracts, Family Crest Seals, Crucifixion seals, Black Hole system bindings, holographic overlays, mind slides, mind control, ownership seals, tags or deeds, all bar codes, pattens, curses, spells, rituals, hijacking, cube systems, negative karmic implants, false karma or debt, negative alien implants, parallel, holographic or phantom system implants or tagging, disease traps, energy tethers, drains or cords, enslavement devices or programs, splitter cell tech, soul cloning, fragmentation or harvesting, timeline distortions, parasite, vampirism, psychic attack on any and all levels, negative mass planetary consciousness. Anything that is not in the highest good, or highest alignment to the truth and Higher Self of (NAME), pull it now.

We command now the sovereign right of all humanity, that no thing and no one has the right to own, manipulate or imprison the divine spark of the Eternal Light from its safe transit journey back home.

We command in the light of the one Infinite Creator that (NAME) is a soul sovereign being and is divinely protected in the light of God and the love of the Christ family.

We command to cancel and delete any and all participation within any enslavement matrix. We sever all ties and command that (NAME) is free from this illusionary maya, wholly and irrevocably. We declare that (NAME) is now liberated from any entanglement, attachment, or disturbance. This freedom is affirmed and sealed, from this moment into eternity.

We command this now in the light of the one Infinite Creator, before all spiritual counsels, an alignment with the Higher Self of (NAME). Beloved teams please support and provide appropriate transit through Mother Arc Portal for (NAME) now.

We command now that (NAME) is free, you are free, you are free!

And so it is!"

Bring in the Tones of Krystala

This is the final part of the process where you can envision (NAME) and imagine them being lovingly pulled up through their sacred bardo chamber. This is a perfect time to do Tonglen for them in order to help remove any last energies that may be held in their mental, emotional or astral bodies as they transition into the light.

(learn more about Tonglen at the bottom of this pdf)

"We now call for the Aquamarine Light of the Beloved Mother Arc to flood the vortex of safe transit bardo of (NAME) with the love and heart of your light.

Guardians, hold the bardo chamber steady now. Amplify the frequencies of the Higher Self of (NAME) and call guide them home now."

Command now with the full sovereignty of your heart and Higher Self the following statement

"All those who seek freedom, you are free. All those who seek freedom, you are free. Depart now, the door is open, you are free, you are free, you are free! Beloved (NAME), you are free! And so it is!

We ask of the Guardians to please continue to oversee safe transit."

Here you may wish to do the sacred sound tones of the divine Ka Ra Ya Sa Ta Ha La like a soft mantra calling (NAME) gently home. You can continue to do Tonglen, or play music, read words, or prayers that (NAME) may have loved to help them in their focus home.

Closing the Ceremony

Breathe in the light of the infinite creator. Allow your energy field to be flooded with the celestial frequencies and the vibrations of the Aquamarine Mother Arc. Give love and honor in closing to (NAME) as you witness their final journey back into Oneness.

Connect now to your Higher Self.

With love in your heart speak the following words.

“With love and eternal gratitude, we give thanks to all of the guardians, guides, portal keepers and spiritual teams that have assisted in this sacred ceremony.

In alignment to the Eternal Flame of Light, to our Kryst Families, and to the divine right of all humanity through the Paladorian Covenant and Blue Ray Mission.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for holding this sacred space.

As we bring this sacred ceremony to a close, please continue to hold the bardo chamber of (NAME) until they are safely home.

And so it is!”

Final Notes

If you're interested in learning more about the sacred journey of the soul through the afterlife, I have put together a course to help you through this sacred journey called The Legacy of The Soul. This is a master level course in mapping the realms and dimensions that our Soul travels. It helps us navigate these places, choose our next path, and make our way back home.

Thank you again for being a guide for souls through this sacred journey.

Much love,

Simple Process of Tonglen

Tonglen is a Tibetan Buddhist practice that is often translated as "giving and taking" or "sending and receiving." It is a form of meditation that is designed to develop compassion and the ability to embrace suffering, both our own and that of others.

Here's a simple explanation of how to practice Tonglen, especially for someone who might be going through the bardo chamber in order to help them become free of any bindings through this sacred journey.

Find a meditative space to be in where you can visualize without being disturbed.

Picture whom you are assisting through the Safe Transit Portal Bardo Chamber of Light.

As you draw in a breath, visualize that you're gently pulling in all the heaviness, binding or limitations around them, like you're inhaling a cloud of shadows and inhaling the shadow right into your heart center. But here's the magic part: your heart's got this superpower to turn that darkness into light, transforming pain into peace.

Then, with a long, soothing exhale, send out that light. Imagine it wrapping them up in comfort, chasing away the shadows, and filling them with calm.

Keep this going, riding the waves of your breath, and with each cycle, let your heart grow bigger, stronger, and more caring. It's like you're having a silent conversation with their soul, saying, "I'm here for you, we'll get through this together."

Tonglen is all about that pure, selfless love that says, "Your pain is my pain, and I'm sending you all the good vibrations to lift you up." It's a quiet, yet powerful way to be there for someone.

The essence of Tonglen is to cultivate a selfless compassion that seeks to take on the suffering of others and offer them relief. It is a profound practice that can help us connect with others on a deep level and develop our own inner strength and compassion. For someone going through the bardo, this practice can be a powerful way to offer spiritual support and connection during a time of transition so that they are liberated from the karmas of the past.
