

Step by Step Process for Class Two

Moon is our ability to see the way in which we express our deepest needs for validation. It is the place of our Ego and how we see ourself.

The PowerPoint PDF for this class (available here <https://www.withbecca.com/JTYB-Course2.html>), and you will also need your Human Design Chart and Astrology Chart with planetary aspects.

You can also download the story of Inanna here.

Please take your time with all of this process. As you go through it, if you ever get confused, please always come back to the Gene Key/Gate of your Moon and Design Moon to meditate on.

Steps

1. Have the information from all our other classes as you look at your own notes of your story of your soul.
2. Now look at the placement of your moon. What is the House and Sign?
3. With the Soul Story in mind, how is your Soul using your Moon as a way help you find where you might be seeking energy outside of yourself, so that you can come back into self and be your own validation?

Using the HOUSE/PLANET/SIGN method, how would you start to look at what you may be looking for validation for from others.

Journey Through Your Blueprint Course TWO

Moon - Driving Force. What you are seeking emotional stability and your capacity to nurture yourself or the lack of. What you are striving for in order to feel emotionally heard/loved/received by others.

Your House and Sign Show you where you are learning to nurture yourself by going deeper into knowing yourself, learning to feel safe within yourself through the qualities of the sign and house your moon is in.

You can now look at your Human Design and see, what Gene Key/Gate is your Moon in?

What HD center is it in?

Add the Chakras Energy to this emotional security you are seeking.

DHARMA

Wisdom	Right Understanding
	Right Thought
Morality	Right Speech
	Right Action
	Right Livelihood
	Right Concentration

It is better to live your own Dharma imperfectly than to live an imitation of somebody else's life with perfection.

Bhagavad Gita

"Let us understand the word "dharma." Dharma means "the law." Dharma does not mean religion. In this culture, we do not know what religion is. We are only looking at what the underlying laws are for your life to happen in the best possible way. We understand unless you stick to these laws, your life cannot happen well. These laws are not an imposition but the foundation of existence. If you know the laws, and you are in tune with them, then your life happens effortlessly. If you do not know, you will simply suffer for no reason."

Journey Through Your Blueprint Course TWO

Now meditate on your Design Moon Energy. Really spend time in the Gene Keys book reading your Design Moon energy. Also, make a note if it is the same as any of your other planetary placements in your chart.

Here are additional vibrations you can meditate on for the line placement energy of your Design Moon
(from the Gene Keys path)

Attraction Keynotes

Line 1 – Sterility/Fertility – empty/wholesome

Line 1 sets the foundation of all attraction. Is it going somewhere or is it a dead- end street? At the Shadow frequency, the 1st line is basically a bit of a caveman or cavewoman. It's just an empty experience. This is sex to try and take away the feeling of emptiness. If your attractor field is putting that out, you will draw in the same thing. This is like going to a prostitute. It may be an experience, but it's basically a sterile one. There is no relationship that comes from it and no heart in it. I don't want to judge that either. It is what it is. So let's look from the other side. Let's say you are aligned with your Purpose, then your dharma brings you to a relationship that is fertile. By fertility we can mean lost of things – babies, maybe, creativity, enjoyment, connectedness, and above all, love. Even if it isn't forever, it's a wholesome experience. The 1st line is basically looking for a wholesome experience – it doesn't have to be perfect, but it will be fulfilling.

Let's apply this to the 50th Gene Key – Corruption, Equilibrium, Harmony – so at the Shadow level, your attractor field is basically not working properly – it's corrupted. This isn't a moral thing – it's just not sending out the right information – so this is the kind of person who if they aren't fulfilled inside themselves will draw in relationships that just don't really go anywhere. Or, they get a wholesome partner but they don't realise it, so it just becomes sterile. Change your frequency though, and you can have it all. This is the potential for drawing in all kinds of relationships, sexual and non-sexual that bring great harmony. Wholesome means you get real depth.

Line 2 – Lust/Passion – inadequate/liberated

The 2nd line – Lust and passion. Lust you see is rooted in this deep feeling of inadequacy. You are not enough, so you have to have another. It's not about the heart – it's just naked desire. It's about losing self consciousness. It's important to say this is not moral. There's nothing wrong with any of these things. They are just sexual frequencies, but the Shadow frequencies just aren't fulfilling – not in the long run. Lust always brings you back to your basic feeling of inadequacy.

What are you without it? Passion on the other hand is different. Passion is lust with the heart open, at least that is my definition here. This is tantra – when sexual desire comes up into the heart it explodes into a completely different dimension. It also takes you into a state of unselfconsciousness, but instead of emptying you of your vitality, it fills you up. This is about being sexually liberated – it's about the dance of sex, the passionate expression of sexuality in its purest form. That's worth attracting.

The 5th Gene Key – Impatience, Patience, Timelessness

Journey Through Your Blueprint Course TWO

So with the 5th Gene Key, you will have to be patient with your passion! This is about allowing the slow build up of passion. If this is your line of Attraction then impatience will blow it – excuse the pun. If you go out there trying to find what you think you want or need out of your inadequacy, then all you will attract is lust. And often lust is unfulfilled. In other words, you don't get to have it. You attract it, but it isn't interested in you. That's what comes from the Shadow. But when you come into the deep universal rhythm of that 5th Gene Key and its field of infinite patience, you will attract the perfect match for your passion, and it will take you into a timeless experience! Something like that!

You have to work these lines and Gene Keys yourself. Think about yours and your life and try and figure out how it works for you. Think back to your past. Imagine how it could be for you and hold onto that. It's all possible for you.

Line 3 – Promiscuity/Playfulness – melodramatic/adventurous

There is that keynote of adventure again. I obviously couldn't think of a better word. A sexual entrepreneur maybe? Anyway, this is about being promiscuous. Remember, we all carry this wound inside us, and this is how it comes out through our sexuality. The 3rd line just creates drama. At the low frequency, this is about bust-ups and fuck-ups and a steady stream of disastrous relationships. The 3rd line we have seen can have issues with commitment. And this can play in either direction – maybe you attract men or women who are promiscuous and who have commitment issues. It's important to consider that with the sphere of Attraction. It might not be you, but the one you draw into your attractor field, and then you blame them, and all along it was your frequency calling them in so that you could deal with a deeper issue inside yourself. At the higher frequency, these are relationships that can be wonderfully playful – where sexuality is not taken so seriously – where it is enjoyed when it's there and enjoyed when it's not. It becomes an adventure instead of an issue.

The 9th Gene Key – Inertia, Determination, Invincibility – The 3rd line of the 9th Gene Key is going to have troubles getting going! You see how these keys work. You figure it out. Sexual inertia coupled with promiscuity – that sounds like a recipe for melodrama if I ever heard one. So maybe you attract in this promiscuous force and because of it your relationship never seems to go anywhere, or maybe you are the promiscuous one because you get bored, and then your relationship never goes anywhere. I mean these keys are why we always have affairs. You get a feeling for these stories after a while – the 9 line 3 in the sphere of Attraction is going to be a soap opera. There's no avoiding these stories – you just have to find the Gift in the Shadow. In this case you will need determination to work through it and keep your heart open and accept the human side of the story. It's your dharma. You draw it towards yourself You are not a victim. Yes it hurts, but that hurt can be transformed, and when it is, what a powerful loving person you will become. Invincible – read the 9th Siddhi.

Line 4 – Frigidity/Romance – distant/intimate

When you come to the 4th line, you are coming into Narnia. If you ever read those wonderful books by CS Lewis as a child – the Lion, Witch and the Wardrobe – they describe this magical inner world that's frozen in ice by the wicked Queen. This is how the 4th line shuts down at a low frequency. It freezes you out. It freezes when it feels threatened. But it also is very adept at concealing the wound. It can make you feel like it's your problem, not theirs. They seem fine. They don't appear wounded at all other than you can't feel any warmth there. But the 4th line is so delicate they can't let you see that, so they pretend to themselves and others that they are fine. This is the 'I'm fine' syndrome. So like Narnia, this is a pattern that needs melting. The 4th line responds to romance. They have to gentle themselves back into life. It's not actually someone else's responsibility – it's always our own. But we can let someone else know what we respond to – then the healing can be dual. The 4th line has the capacity for incredible intimacy. An open heart and an open sexuality is an awesome thing to behold.

Journey Through Your Blueprint Course TWO

If we take the 29th Gene Key as an example we can have some fun here. This is Half-Heartedness, Commitment and Devotion. So the 29, line 4 will only give you a half-hearted sexual experience. Frigidity is really about terror. Sexuality is about juices. It's about mutual enjoyment – and we are not just talking about the sexual act – it's in your whole aura. If you are shut down, you actually attract the very forces that make you afraid. But when you are open, committed, but with strong boundaries, then you can romance anyone for any higher purpose.

This is quite easy to see in a woman, but imagine you are a man with this – your life is going to be pretty dry. You might hide in your career for example, and your sex life is going to be pretty dead. You are distant to women, and men! But when you find a way to parent yourself, to warm your own heart, to be more alive, then your whole destiny changes. Devotion is a force to be reckoned with. Another Gene Key to read.

Line 5 – Entrapment/Sensuality – manipulative/masterful

Line 5 – That tricky line 5. You can't romance these people. They won't buy it. This is a pattern that uses sexuality to maintain control. We all know this pattern from the movies. And the entrapment is actually about oneself. The 5th line gets trapped in its own web. It will use sex as a means of avoidance. This is manipulation – and you have to realise these are unconscious patterns, so it's not like we often know we are doing this. There's no blame either. Even though any of these patterns can be abusive. They are all abusive – the shadow is about self abuse. So with the 5th line, you have to realise when you are doing it. It takes a lot for a 5th line to 'come out' and be vulnerable – they often have a lot invested in their self image. But wow it's refreshing for them when they do, and others – these are our sexual teachers and healers – when the heart is open here, we find sensuality at its most beautiful, its sweetest, its most alluring. These people can open up other people's hearts through their deep love of the physical and emotional.

The 43rd Gene Key – Deafness, Insight, Epiphany –

The 43 is about genuine inner breakthroughs. So here is an example where sexuality would prevent inner breakthrough. This is sex used unconsciously to drown out the potential of the higher frequencies. Such a person might spend their whole life locked out of their higher evolution because of a sexual and emotional pattern that keeps them feeling like they are in control, when in fact they are deluding themselves. The litmus test is always how open is your heart? This person's breakthrough might well be sexual. It has to be. This is insight through sexuality – this is epiphany tied to sexuality. It's amazing when you think what we humans are capable of.

Line 6 – Disappointment/Innocence – resigned/ecstatic

Finally – what a medley! I feel like I am running a gauntlet here! The 6th line is always looking for perfection, so of course they are going to be disappointed! We all have our sexual healing. This one is an odyssey. The 6th line often gets burned early on in its life and then a part of it gives up. They resign themselves to fate. This is as good as it gets. And they can stay there their whole lives. Even if they move to new relationships, they carry this unconscious disappointment, which means that every new relationship, sexual or otherwise is doomed to disappointment. So the 6th line has to wake up. They have to take up their dreams again. It's not about hope. That's too facile. It's about knowing that life is perfect and that there is value in every step along the voyage. It's about perspective and gratitude. The 6th line needs to learn this – that life isn't a fairy tale, but it is rich in learning. So never stop being open to the possibilities that lie ahead. Don't make hope out of it. Just stay open and let your natural optimism swell your aura. Anything is possible. Then the 6th line one day hits their own innocence, and it's ecstatic. Then you realise you never needed anyone else to feel this. Sexual freedom is innocence.

The 22nd Gene Key – Dishonour, Graciousness, Grace

Journey Through Your Blueprint Course TWO

This is a person who has to learn to honour themselves in life. Life and their Dharma will bring them this story. Perhaps they are dishonoured by another, or perhaps they do the dishonouring. It doesn't matter who hurts who. We all carry the wound. This is about healing. This 6th line has to remember their sensuality through being gracious. Through seeing the innocence of all life, even in its worst manifestations. The 6th line carries a lesson for all the 6th lines – it's about knowing the innocence beneath the wound. It's about coming back into one's beautiful essence. It's about the Grace of that.

So when you are contemplating your own attractor field think about these things – think about how you use your sexuality. Be honest. Do you sometimes use it to escape something, to distract yourself, to manipulate because you feel insecure? You don't have to feel bad about any of this. It's just important to see the patterns for what they are. Think about the sexual experiences you have attracted into your life. Not that you did anything wrong. They were needed for your dharma. Maybe that's hard to see sometimes, but every Shadow contains a Gift somewhere. It's up to us to find it. Sexual healing comes about because we begin to see ourselves differently from the inside out, because we learn to feel safe and grounded in our core stability. Then our life changes because the things and people that we draw towards ourselves also change, and we move up and up the spectrum of frequencies. Sex has always had that potential – to elevate human consciousness – not necessarily the sexual act, but our sexuality, our raw vital force. When we use it as a means of opening our hearts, then there really can be no stopping us!

Here are more polarity stories you can pull from...

Polarity One: 1st and 7th Houses The first polarity turns around the issues of self/other. Am I deeply immersed in myself and not relating to others? Or am I so caught up in a relationship that I have forgotten who I am? Resolution: merging. As you discover who you are, give all that you find to your partner. As you are immersed in the other, see clearly and deeply that you are your partner. Teaching: the Mayan saying “In Lak’etch, I’ Il Laken” — “I am yourself, you are another.”

This polarity is about the mastery of the exploration of self/other happens when you are not separate in your relationships; your boundaries are secure. Merging without being swallowed by the other is natural to you. The rich fabric of your primary relationships is why you are such a developed person. You are more in a relationship than you could ever be on your own, and the qualities you acknowledge in yourself are not prideful. You see your own beauty by observing yourself in another. You see the magic in your other side, which frees you from the gripping expectations you’ve secretly had of yourself ever since you can remember. You’re bored with all those unattainable ideals that somebody projected onto you long ago. All that is left is fascination with the awesome energy you find in others. You are waves of love and light in the universe! As this multidimensional sense of self awakens, new levels quicken in your relationships. Your partner simultaneously sees your vibrancy and basks in wonder.

Polarity Two: 2nd and 8th Houses The second polarity turns around the issues of grounding and emptying. Am I stuck in a house in the midst of a fifteen-year accumulation of possessions and feeling like I can never leave? Or have I so let go of things I need for living that I am not grounded? Resolution: higher ethical sensitivity. Take for yourself what you really need from the Earth and enjoy all your pleasures. Let go of every single thing in your life that is not frequently needed or used. Teaching: the Native American saying “The Earth is your Mother and she freely offers to you all that you need.”

This polarity is about the mastery of the experience of grounding and emptying occurs once you’ve made home on Earth. Whether you move about with just a knapsack on your back or dwell in one home and never leave it, wherever you are, you are grounded and vibrate with the center of Earth. As you exist profoundly intermeshed in the planetary fields, you do not allow things into your space that distract you from the planetary pulse. This focus links you into the Galactic Mind, an empty space holding Earth in form—Gaia. Once you attain this linkage—which is based on grounding and letting go of anything that is not needed in order to stay in form—you discover how to circulate this field by using thought to manifest things. Since you are clear about what you really need, you keep it just by paying attention to it. You eliminate things that are extraneous or intrusive. With no junk in your space, you visualize what you need, and it appears within a matter of time assuming you still want it. This is co-creation with the divine.

Polarity Three: 3rd and 9th Houses The third polarity turns around the issue of integrating in ordinary reality and connecting with spiritual realms. Am I so hooked on my computer, fax machine, telephone, and plane flights that I haven’t had a mystical thought or feeling in months? Or am I so spiritually obsessed that I can’t stand ordinary reality, which is falling apart because of my lack of attention to details? Resolution: integration of self as vessel of spirit. Find the spiritual dimension daily within every act in your life. As you meditate, connect everything you feel and know with everything and everyone in your life. Teaching: the Zen Buddhist saying “With right words and actions, spirit resides in the heart.”

This polarity is about the mastery of self-integration in ordinary reality and connection with spiritual realms occurs when you can feel the spiritual flame that exists in the most ordinary and mundane things in life. For years you’ve learned the tricks of how and when to be totally in touch with your primary contacts. You know how to respond quickly and effectively when you are really needed; otherwise, you are free from physical linkages. You travel freely in many nonphysical zones by means of clairvoyant, clairaudient, and clairsentient skills. When intelligences that can assist you are nearby, you see, hear, and feel them. You live in ordinary reality in total contact with unseen worlds that are the source of higher guidance. In ordinary reality, rare breakthroughs—such as a deep conversation with an ancient, wise relative or a chance encounter with a long-lost friend—link you with awesome spiritual forces crossing chasms of time and space. With this penetrating awareness, you hear exactly what someone is saying to you when they are speaking to you.

Polarity Four: 4th and 10th Houses The fourth polarity turns around the issue of inner knowing and outer power. Am I so deeply involved in my home or inner subconscious exploration that I am disempowered in the world out there? Or am I so involved in power struggles that I have forgotten exploration of my inner world? Resolution: inner energies create outer reality. Here you explore your subconscious, come to know your shadows, and find respect for the power of inner urges. As you revel in exercising power in the world, in freely giving of your personal power, you recognize that everything you know comes from the pool of all the desires and visions of Earth and its inhabitants from the beginning of time. Teaching: the New Age saying “You create your own reality.”

This polarity is about the mastery of inner knowing and outer power exists when you can read someone else’s reality just by going into yourself and observing your own responses. You don’t have to examine outer forces to know about anything; you feel the vibrations of others within your body. When you are in a power role, you can read any situation by observing energy coalescing around desires: you see things moving in and out of form to know what to align yourself with. As for your powers, they activate when situations offer new insights that ignite your passion. You immediately drop any pursuit that drains your energy. Moving through scenes without being noticed, realities shift when you pass through.

Polarity Five: 5th and 11th Houses The fifth polarity turns around desires and giving away. Am I so involved in my creativity that I pay no attention to giving to others? Or am I giving everything all day to people who need me and paying no attention to the needs of my inner child? Resolution: playing creates service. As your child within plays and creates, you then know how to give from that wellspring of delight. Teaching: the creation spirituality saying “As the Divine plays, God/Goddess creates through humankind.”

This polarity is about the mastery of your desires and giving away your gifts enables you to consciously participate in the creative flow of the universe. You manifest realities with pure intention because nonphysical beings participate in your creations. You open the world to these energies and invite them in to play with you. By making pillars of light in Earth, you open the vertical axis that circulates energy from one reality to another, thus new intelligence arrives. You see creation as it occurs and shape it into tangible things. As you create visuals of things in your mind, they take form, just like a painter creates images on canvases. Creating with thought is palpable.

Polarity Six: 6th and 12th Houses The sixth polarity turns around being in the moment and letting go into divine fusion. Am I so obsessed with my responsibilities that I have lost contact with spirit? Am I so involved in mystical contemplation that I am not existing in the moment, in ordinary reality? If Spirit walked in the back door of my house or filled my car with gas, would I see her/him? Resolution: be here now. As you fulfill your duties, notice how absolute focus moves you right into deep cosmic joy. As you contemplate the Divine, notice how it is most easily found in the smallest and most obscure places. Teaching: from the mythological centaur Chiron, "In the energy of each moment the divine exists."

This polarity is about the mastery of being in the moment while merging into the divine fusion occurs when you are totally aware in ordinary reality and blissed out. This state opens extraordinary perceptual skill; while you're in this state, things are timeless and you notice minute shifts or change in your reality. Things and people are always changing, but you actually notice these changes right when they happen. Your own body has always been your best teacher, and you can actually feel viral or microbial invaders. You work with them and rarely get sick except when they have something to teach you. As you watch things manifest, you see the actions of the Divine Mind.
